TO THE READER.

THIS Catalogue of Books of Mr. John Cropper, deceased, were Collected by him with great Care, and at great Expence, are the best for their Number and Subjects they treat of that hitherto hath been, or perhaps ever will be Sold by Auction. He was extream curious of buying the best Editions and as earnestly desirous of the fairest Copies that were at any rate to be procured; hence you have many significant Books of the large Paper, and most of them extraordinary well bound. His Learning rendred him capable of Reading and thoroughly Understanding what he had Collected, designing his proper Use not the Show of them, and was more Conversant in the Insides, than delighted with the Outsides of them: which appears by the Collections and Transcripts out of them, left under his own Hand. Thus much I thought fit to say of him, and lest I could not without manifest Injury to his Memory, being well acquainted with him. All Gentlemen, &c. are desired to view the learned Remains of him, I mean his incomparable Collection of Entertaining Folio's, &c. three Days before, for their better Information and Encouragement in the ensuing Sale,

By your Servant, EDWARD MILLINGTON.

This Sale will begin on Monday the 19th of June 1693, at Will's Coffee-House, in St. Paul's Church-yard, at Four in the Evening, continuing daily till all the Books are Sold.
